The Kehoe family is in luck just now. J. T. Harshan, who, when he married Miss Kehoe some years ago, was a railroad brakeman, has now a $6,000 yearly salary as Division Superistendent of the Louisville a disability Railroad, with headquarters at New Orleans. The grandmother of these Kehoe boys is now eighty-flive years old, and is a widow for the seventh time. Her widowed daughter, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, of Connersville, Indiana, lately deceased without children, leaving her estate of several thousand dollars equally to the aged lasty and to Mrs. Kehoe and to four other brothers and sisters. The Kehoe beits had often contributed regularly to their mother's support, which they could do, none of them ever drinking lutox-leating liquors.

THOMAS and 'Squire Kabler, who are charged with having murdered George Patterson in Bracken county last August, were brought here this morning from Peebles Station, Ohio, where they were arrested on the 8th inst. They were captured by J. Askren, and were in the custody of that gentleman and a guard at Nesbitt & McKrell's. composed of Davidson Gates, Constable, of Adams county, and Messrs. William Custar and Mike Resler. They were taken before Judge Coons, who remanded them to the charge of the authorities of Bracken county, where they were taken this morning. It is understood that one of the prisoners denies his guilt, and charges it upon the other.

WE regret to announce the death of our young friend, Thompson Wheatly, which took place at the residence of his father, Mr. Thomas W. Wheatly, on yesterday afternoon. While convalescing from a long illness of typhoid fever, he was stricken with pneumonia, and, in his enfeebled condition, sank rapidly under the violence of the disease. He was a youth of remarkable promise, of peculiarly quick intelligence, of the most amiable and effectionate disposition, singularly spirited and self-reliant, and a book store. universal favorite wherever known. Prof. D. B. Learey, who formerly lived in Falmouth, Ky., arrived in the city from that place this morning, and was seen by a Post reporter. He has known McDonald for a long time, and states pos-tively that he saw J. E. McDonald last night. He was accompanied by a lady exactly answering the description of Mollie Hubbard. The two got off the Kentucky Central train at Falmouth yesterday morning. He said the lady appeared very nervous, and that Me-Donald scenned as if wanting to disguise himself as much as possible; that the parties, after alighting from the train, walked rapidly into town, after which he lost sight of them, though he believes they are now in Pendleton county.
